

Mr. Narasimhan is responsible for managing all aspects of Global FP&A at Rimini Street, including strategic long-range planning, budgeting and reporting, investment and decision-support analysis, and measuring and managing the company's key financial metrics.

Mr. Narasimhan has spent 20 years in financial management at both large Fortune 500 companies and smaller high-growth organizations, leading initiatives to improve the planning process and strategic thinking through insight generation, effective collaboration, and timely reporting.

Mr. Narasimhan comes to Rimini Street from the finance subsidiary of Kemper Corporation, where he was Vice President of Finance, responsible for leading the team managing interest rate risk, capital adequacy, cash flow, and loan loss reserve requirements; ensuring compliance with State and Federal regulatory requirements; and coordinating activities to support the quarterly and annual financial audits. Prior to joining Kemper, he was Director of Financial Planning and Analysis at Megapath, Inc., where he led the M&A due diligence analysis contributing to the successful merger between Megapath and Netifice, Inc.; partnered with sales and marketing to analyze and influence pricing decisions; and realized millions in savings through vendor and procurement spend analysis. Before that, he managed the financial planning and analysis process at Vodafone Group, PLC. Earlier in his career, he held credit management and analysis roles at Sears and Price Waterhouse.

Mr. Narasimhan holds a Bachelor's degree in Business Administration from the John M. Olin School of Business at Washington University in St. Louis, and an MBA from the Crummer Graduate School of Business at Rollins College. He is also a Certified Public Accountant (currently inactive) in California.
